

Stratford Road School 's PARP 2001 Rap

Written by Rocco DelGreco

Curled up snug in your favorite chair,
You can travel anywhere.
Borrow a book that's all you need,
Take two or three, it's fun to read.

Journeys that will take you far,
Read a book wherever you are.
Grab a partner, grab a book.
Won't be long 'til you're both hooked.

Read 'bout people, places, things.
Castles, animals and things with wings.
Stories that will take you far,
Feed your mind and shoot for stars.

There's Arthur, and Stuart, Little that is,
A Light in the Attic and the Polk Street Kids.
The Very Hungry Caterpillar, Charlotte's Web,
Harry Potter, even read before bed.

Fiction, Folklore, History,
All of these books are fine with me.
Fantasy, Biography, and Poetry,
I'll read them all, just wait and see.

Read, it's fun and you'll learn things, too,
Read some more and change your view.
Shout from rooftops, yell, and scream,
Read more books and reach your dreams.

Curled up snug in your favorite chair,
You can travel anywhere.
Borrow a book that's all you need,
Take two or three, it's fun to read.
