Dear Parents,

One of the most important skills our children learn is reading. Reading creates a strong, positive influence and builds a foundation for a lifetime of significant benefits.

PARP stands for Parents As Reading Partners. PARP is a program designed to foster the love of reading in children by asking parents to set aside 15 minutes daily to read with their children. PARP events are held at schools nationwide and Stratford Road has hosted this important event for more than 10 years!

We proudly invite you to join Stratford Road's "Reading Rocks: Read like a Rock Star" Principal's Challenge. Minutes read will add musical notes to our display throughout the week. This package will serve as your guide for the week. Please look through this packet with your child and become familiar with the activities planned for the week.

PARP celebrates the importance of reading in our everyday lives. Spending just 15 minutes a day reading with your child helps "grow a reader" and raises the potential for academic and lifelong success. No one is ever too old to be read to. Take this opportunity to participate in as many of these enjoyable activities designed to get your family reading together and establish good reading habits that will last a lifetime.

Carry a Poem or Song in your Pocket

You can cut out the poem or song that we have provided for you below or you can copy or write one of your own! Carry the Poem or Song in Your Pocket Day is Monday, March 15th.

The Monsters' Musical Contest

When the musical contest for monsters convened,
the Wolfman was howling and played like a fiend.
Then Dracula jammed, but flew into a rage
when Frankenstein's torch singing lit up the stage.

The Mummy, he rapped with the aid of a band,
but stopped when The Blob ate his microphone stand.
The Blob, by the way, also swallowed The Fly.
(I don't know why he swallowed The Fly.)

The Creature that came from that famous lagoon was booed by the ghosts when he sang out of tune.
Dr. Jekyll had stage fright and ran off to hide, while Igor sang love songs to Frankenstein's Bride.

The Thing did impressions. The Boogey-Man danced.
The Zombie just stood there, completely entranced.
The Invisible Man played his air guitar well, but no one could see him so no one could tell.

They played through the night having oodles of fun,
but couldn't determine which monster had won.
And so they decided they'd have to convene and do it again on the next Halloween.

PARP 2010

Read Like a Rock Star!

Our Musical Notes will decorate the bulletin board in the main lobby based on the minutes you read every night during PARP week. Send in the picture that we have included in this packet.

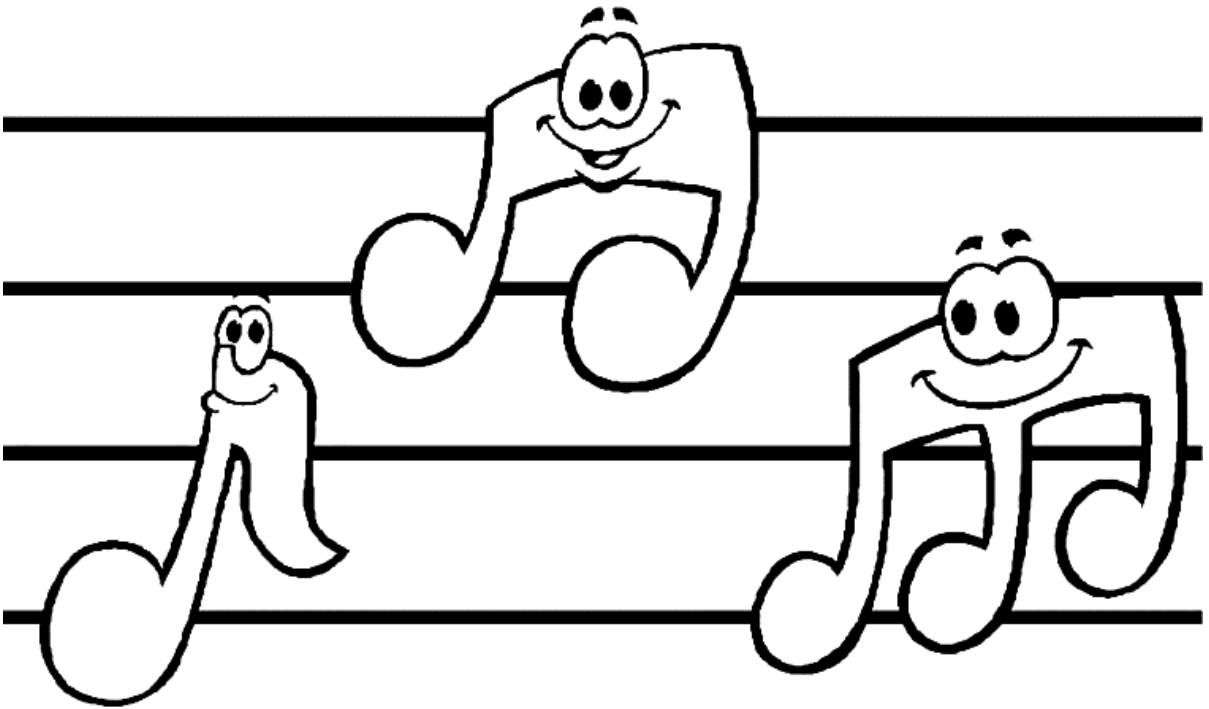

Mrs. Clark and Mr. Scesney challenge all the students to read for 10,000 minutes this week. If Stratford Road students meet the challenge each child will receive a special PARP prize.

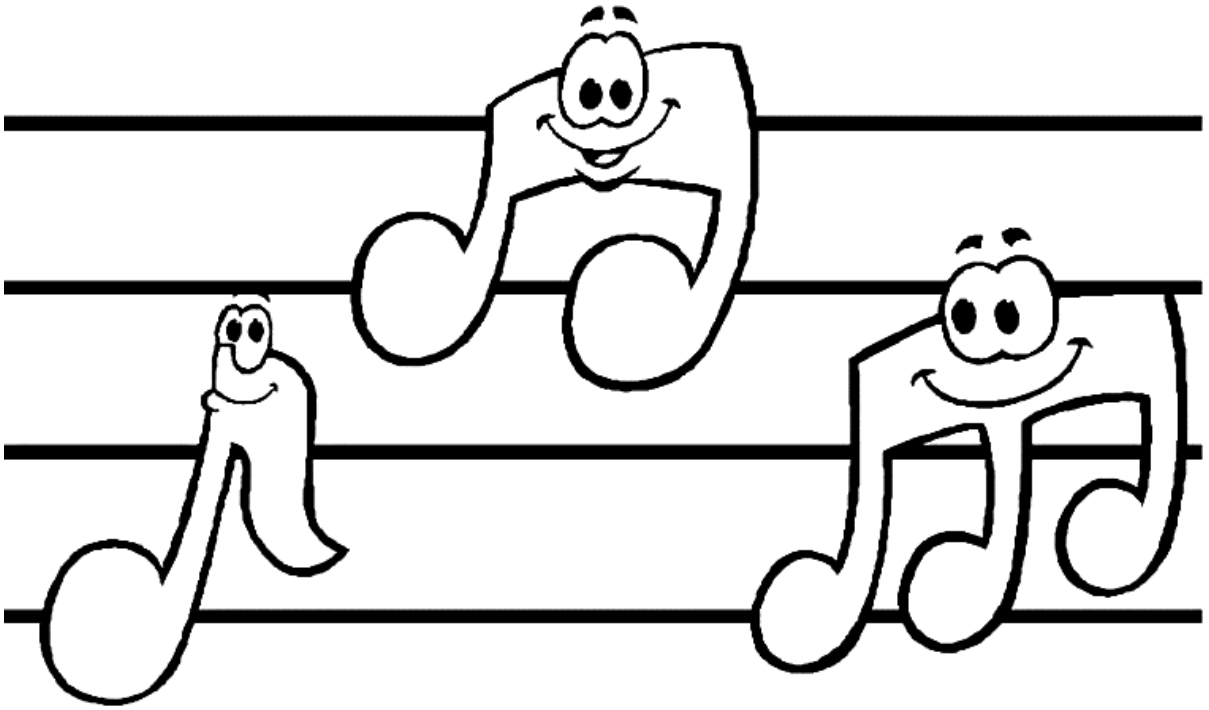

Please cut on the dotted line and color in the music notes! Then on the back indicate your name, the title and author of the book or books you read, and how many minutes you read for. Each set of three notes stands for 15 minutes read. We will tally the minutes each day and let you know how we are doing.

Book Donation

As part of PARP 2010, we will be donating new and gently used books. We are seeking donations of books that are appropriate for ages 2-17, to be donated to a children's organization.

Please participate in this act of kindness by sending in a new or gently used book by Friday, March 19th. There will be a drop-off bin located in the lobby.

Feel free to add a sticker or inscription inside the book's cover for an added personal touch.

This community service program will help to make reading available to those who cannot afford to purchase books. Help us make this book donation a big success!

Thanks in advance for your assistance!

Special Thanks

Many wonderful people work together to create a successful PARP week. We would like to recognize their involvement and show our appreciation for making this event a pleasure to undertake.

Staff participation is important to the success of any PTA program. We thank the entire Stratford Road School staff for their support and spirit all week long. A special thanks to our teacher committee for their valuable input and administration's encouragement of this event:

Mrs. Clark	Ms. Bowers	Mrs. Briguglio	Ms. Laviola
Mr. Scensy	Ms. Montana	Mr. Paskal	Mrs. Horowitz
Mrs. Levy	Ms. Newman	Ms. Stezler	Mr. Szwejkowski
Ms. Symons

Guest Readers from our schools and community deserve special appreciation for taking time out of their busy schedules to read to our children.

The Staff at the Children's Center, Plainview-Old Bethpage Public Library welcomed our students and made our raffle a success.

A special thanks to the Gronich family for working under the gun to assist us with the PARP website.

An especially big thanks to all the parents and children who participated all week – your enthusiasm celebrates the importance of reading.

We are proud of all our students who Read like a Rock Star this week, keep up the good work!
